

CSCA Announces 2020 School Counselors of the Year

For release on October 23, 2020

Colorado – The Colorado School Counselor Association (CSCA) is pleased to announce the winners for the 2020 School Counselor of the Year awards program. The award honors the professionals who devote their careers to serving as advocates – and often lifesavers – for their students.

- Middle School – William Janas at Jenkins Middle School in Colorado Springs, Colorado. D11 School District. Principal: - Darren Joiner

The panel selected individuals based on several criteria, including: school counseling innovations, effective counseling programs, leadership and advocacy skills, and contributions to student advancement.

“School counselors make significant contributions to the overall well being of students and their success,” said Richard Wong, former Executive Director, American School Counselor Association. “They have unique qualifications and skills that allow them to address students’ academic achievement, social/emotional and career development needs.”

The 2020 School Counselors of the Year will be recognized at the Colorado School Counselor Association Annual Conference on October 6-8, 2021 in Keystone, Colorado. The Awards Dinner will be October 6, 2021, at the Keystone Resort and Conference Center

About the Colorado School Counselor Association

The Colorado School Counselor Association (CSCA) is a nonprofit, professional organization representing Professional School Counselors in the state of Colorado. As a state level organization of the American School Counselor Association (ASCA), CSCA promotes student success by expanding the image and influence of professional school counseling through leadership, advocacy, collaboration and systemic change. CSCA helps school counselors guide their students toward academic achievement, social and emotional development, and career planning to help today’s students become tomorrow’s productive, contributing members of society.
